

Title: Deputy General Office Supervisor
Department: General Office
Reporting to: General Office Supervisor

ROLE SPECIFICATION

The General Office Department

A great opportunity to join our General Office department, currently comprised of a General Office Supervisor and a General Office Assistant. As the firm grows, our aim is to recruit astute, motivated and enthusiastic individuals to provide an excellent level of customer service to internal clients.

As a Deputy Supervisor, you will be responsible for the duties outlined below and for supervising the General Office Assistant in the General Office Supervisor's absence

Role Responsibilities

- Post – ensure all incoming/outgoing Royal Mail, DX and couriers are sorted in line with agile working protocols and service standards. Ensure franking machine is topped up and any faults are reported to the franking machine supplier and resolved promptly.
- Faxes - ensure incoming faxes are delivered promptly to the appropriate person.
- Reprographics – work as part of a team to complete all print, copy, scan and bind tasks. Also report issues with machines to our reprographics maintenance company and ensure faults are resolved promptly. •
- Stationery – carry out stock checks, place orders for items as required and top up stationery points as necessary, ensuring items supplied accord with the core stationery list.
- New joiners – carry out the General Office new joiners' induction session in the General Office Supervisor's absence.
- Financial – ensure all incoming invoices are checked for accuracy, against the contract price/terms where appropriate, and are coded for the Head of Business Services' authorisation within one working day of receipt.
- KPI's – ensure accurate records are kept and checks made to ensure the monthly KPI report is sent to the Head of Business Services on the first working day of each month.
- Meeting rooms and events - assist in setting up and re-setting meeting rooms as requested, liaising with the Reception team as and when required.
- Office environment – undertaking transfers of furniture and other large/heavy items (either internally or as part of contractor deliveries/works) to assist with space or safety protocols and help maintain a clean and safe working environment.

- Supervisory – supervise the General Office Assistant when the General Office Supervisor is absence, co-ordinate rotas and lunches to ensure there is sufficient cover at all times, and maintain service standards when managing workload via call, email or Teams, advising the Head of Business Services where any issue arises that might impact client service.
- Records support – manage the on-site and off-site archiving and matter closing service when the Records Assistant is absent.

At Fladgate, we recognise the importance of an agile approach, not only in the way we work with our clients, but our employees also. Hybrid working at Fladgate varies depending on your role and responsibilities. As a general rule, for those who can work from home and have roles compatible with home working, we operate a hybrid pattern of two days remote working and three days office based.

Our aim

To create a culture where our people can thrive and feel supported at work. As such, the Firm's approach to parental leave is designed to ensure that anyone who is a parent or is expecting to be a parent has a positive experience prior to parental leave, during their parental leave and upon their return to work whichever type of leave they decide to take.

Our parental leave policies* cover:

Maternity – We offer both statutory maternity pay (SMP) and enhanced maternity pay (EMP), subject to eligibility*. If eligible, EMP provides 100% of your salary in weeks 1-16 and 50% of your salary in weeks 17-28. Weeks 29-39 are at the government set rate (or 90% of salary, whichever is lower). In order to receive EMP, you must undertake to remain continuously employed by the Firm and to return to work for a period of at least six months from the date of your return to work before providing and notice of resignation*.

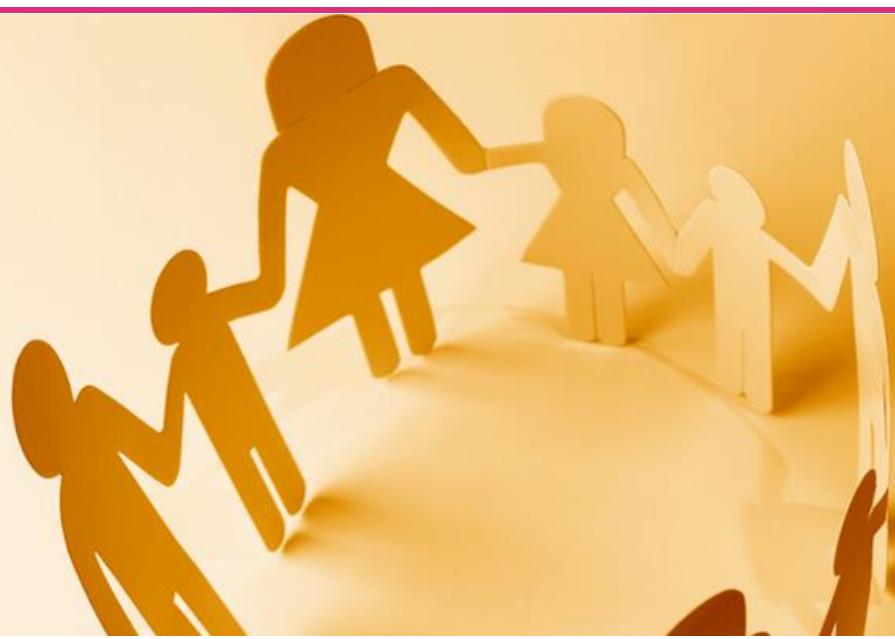

Paternity – We offer enhanced paternity pay (EPP) as full basic pay for up to three weeks*.

Shared Parental Leave – SPL allows parents to take up to 50 weeks' shared leave in total following the birth or adoption of a child*.

Adoption and Surrogacy*

Ordinary Parental Leave – Allowing up to 18 weeks unpaid leave for employees who have parental responsibility for a child / children*.

* Full details can be found in our staff handbook, which will be provided upon offer of employment.

Our focus

We know that to achieve our inclusion and diversity objectives we need to focus on a number of areas:

Developing a diverse leadership – We have a mix of different ethnicity and genders on our leadership groups. We are working hard to improve the gender balance of our partner team and we are striving for 30% female representation by 2025.

Attracting a diverse workforce – This means adopting a properly personal approach when connecting with those interested in joining our team including: ensuring fairness in our processes; working with those, like recruiters, who help us in this; a commitment that you will always meet male and female talent in our recruitment interviews.

Engaging with everyone in our team to ensure they are heard, supported and understood. Encourage everyone to develop their own voice in shaping our culture, their future and our service to clients. That might be working flexibly or that might be a specific career programme - everyone needs different things at different times.

Helping all our people in all roles to achieve their full potential. We provide training, coaching, internal mentors and buddies, whatever works for each individual and their own personal development path.

“As the I&D Partner Lead of the Firm, I am acutely aware that our vision and values are built around the word ‘personal’. We are a people business dependent on brilliant client relationships. Inclusion and diversity objectives are therefore not ‘soft’ business aspirations, they are fundamental to our success”
