

Title: Reward and Benefits Manager

Department: People

ROLE DESCRIPTION

Role/Responsibilities

The Reward and Benefits Manager, although part of the wider People team, is a standalone role which will be responsible for designing, implementing and managing the firm's compensation and benefits programs that attract, retain and motivate top talent:

- With guidance and input from the People team, develop and implement a compensation and benefits strategy which align with the firm's objectives.
- Review the firm's current benefits offering and compensation and bonus structure and make recommendations which ensure the firm remains competitive and able to attract and retain top talent.
- Be the subject matter expert and point of contact to the People team and firm on all matters relating to benefits and compensation.
- Manage end to end processes, such as the annual benefit contract renewals, benefit selection windows, benchmarking exercises.
- With support from the People team, lead the firm's salary review process, including making recommendations to the Board regarding bonuses and salary increases in line with budget, obtaining benchmarking data, managing the salary review spreadsheet, communication internally and salary letters.
- Manage the relationship with third party providers, including the firm's benefit's brokers.
- Analyse compensation and benefit data and trends to provide insights and recommendations for continuous improvement.
- Take the lead on reward and benefits related projects and assist with other firmwide projects where your expertise may be required.
- Maintain a good understanding of the external market and best practice, so to ensure that the firm is delivering a high-quality service amongst our competitors.
- Conduct day-to-day enrolment and changes into benefit programs, reconciliation of invoices, conduct periodic audits to ensure compliance and accuracy and analysis of market trends.
- Oversee the staff payroll, providing guidance and advice to members of the People team.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

The ideal candidate will have:

- An undergraduate degree in any subject or equivalent professional experience.
- A minimum of 5 years' experience in reward and benefits, preferably within a professional services environment.
- Track record in identifying opportunities, building client relationships and networks internally and externally.
- Experience with project management and in depth understanding of statutory laws and regulations relating to pay and benefits.
- Experience in contributing to the diversity and inclusion strategy and operationalising it across the business.
- Ability to manage individual and team workloads effectively.
- Ability to confidently communicate and build relations with partners, managers, staff and clients at all levels.
- Ability to manage multiple stakeholders whilst maintaining a firm first approach.

At Fladgate, we recognise the importance of an agile approach, not only in the way we work with our clients, but our employees also. Hybrid working at Fladgate varies depending on your role and responsibilities. As a general rule, for those who can work from home and have roles compatible with home working, we operate a hybrid pattern of two days remote working and three days office based.

Our aim

To create a culture where our people can thrive and feel supported at work. As such, the Firm's approach to parental leave is designed to ensure that anyone who is a parent or is expecting to be a parent has a positive experience prior to parental leave, during their parental leave and upon their return to work whichever type of leave they decide to take.

Our parental leave policies* cover:

Maternity – We offer both statutory maternity pay (SMP) and enhanced maternity pay (EMP), subject to eligibility*. If eligible, EMP provides 100% of your salary in weeks 1-20 and 50% of your salary in weeks 21-32. Weeks 33-39 are at the government set rate (or 90% of salary, whichever is lower). In order to receive EMP, you must undertake to remain continuously employed by the Firm and to return to work for a period of at least six months from the date of your return to work before providing notice of resignation*.

Paternity – We offer enhanced paternity pay (EPP) as full basic pay for up to three weeks*.

Shared Parental Leave – SPL allows parents to take up to 50 weeks' shared leave in total following the birth or adoption of a child*.

Adoption and Surrogacy*

Ordinary Parental Leave – Allowing up to 18 weeks unpaid leave for employees who have parental responsibility for a child / children*.

* Full details can be found in our staff handbook, which will be provided upon offer of employment.

Our focus

We know that to achieve our inclusion and diversity objectives we need to focus on a number of areas:

Developing a diverse leadership – We have a mix of different ethnicity and genders on our leadership groups. We are working hard to improve the gender balance of our partner team and we are striving for 30% female representation by 2025.

Attracting a diverse workforce – This means adopting a properly personal approach when connecting with those interested in joining our team including: ensuring fairness in our processes; working with those, like recruiters, who help us in this; a commitment that you will always meet male and female talent in our recruitment interviews.

Engaging with everyone in our team to ensure they are heard, supported and understood. Encourage everyone to develop their own voice in shaping our culture, their future and our service to clients. That might be working flexibly or that might be a specific career programme - everyone needs different things at different times.

Helping all our people in all roles to achieve their full potential. We provide training, coaching, internal mentors and buddies, whatever works for each individual and their own personal development path.

“As the I&D Partner Lead of the Firm, I am acutely aware that our vision and values are built around the word ‘personal’. We are a people business dependent on brilliant client relationships. Inclusion and diversity objectives are therefore not ‘soft’ business aspirations, they are fundamental to our success”
